

Guy Furfaro

Whenever Somerset County soccer is discussed, the name of Guy Furfaro enters the conversation. After being named to a succession of All-County teams, Guy topped off his senior year by scoring 49 goals. This resulted in earning more recognition: being named the leading scorer in the state of New Jersey in 1985. To many he is the epitome of soccer in the 80's since he has the distinction of being named Somerset County Player of the Decade. Guy received a full soccer scholarship to attend Philadelphia Textiles where he garnered 1st Team All-America honors during his sophomore year. He continued playing in the professional soccer league. For the past 6 years, Guy has been using his expertise at Shippensburg University, where he is the head coach of both the men's and women's soccer teams.

Guy Furfaro has certainly made his mark on Somerset County soccer. His expertise on the soccer field is rivaled only by his commitment to excellence in a sport he truly loves. It is rare to have such a distinguished player as Guy Furfaro as part of a school's legacy. It is because of this that the Hall of Fame is proud to induct him.

Athletic Achievements and Honor

High School

All-County: Sophomore, Junior, and Senior Years
All-State: Junior and Senior Years
Senior year led the state in scoring
Named Somerset County Player of the Decade

College

1st Team All-American in Sophomore Year
Scored 44 career goals to finish 1 top 10 in the country

Professional

Baltimore Blast 1989-1990
Penn Jersey 1990

"Up Close and Personal"

For 6 years has been the Head Men's and Head Women's Soccer Coach at Shippensburg University
Coach of the Year/Women's Soccer Northeast Region in 2002
He and wife Kathryn have 3 children: Robert (9), Marc (6), and Renea (4)