

Tom Chorniewy

Tom Chorniewy has the distinction of being the first All-State football player from Hillsborough High School. What made this even more memorable was that Tom's father had been an All-State football player in 1948. Tom's athletic prowess not only earned him recognition in New Jersey, but he was also honored by the New York Daily News. Tom Received a scholarship award from the University of Florida at Gainesville.

Tom also participated in basketball and track while at Hillsborough High School. However, it is his achievement on the gridiron that has earned him a place in the Hall of Fame.
