

Jodi Eckert Leonardi

Jodi Eckert Leonardi is a 1979 graduate of Hillsborough High School. While attending Hillsborough High School, Jodi earned three varsity letters in basketball and four varsity letters in softball. However, it is Jodi's prowess in basketball that earned her a place into the Hillsborough High School Athletic Hall of Fame. During Jodi's three years as a starter on the varsity basketball team, their record was 63-12.

Jodi's basketball honors include:

1st Team All Area -1979, 1st Team All County -1979

First girls' basketball player to score 1,000 career points

Upon graduation from high school, Jodi attended and graduated from Lafayette College. Unfortunately Jodi's collegiate basketball career was ended in her freshman year when she tore her anterior cruciate ligament. Her knee never recovered to a degree which would have allowed her to play at the collegiate level.

Jodi resides in Morristown (NJ) with her husband of 13 years, Jerry. They have four children: Victoria, 10; Joseph, 8; Elizabeth, 6; and Michael, 4. Jodi is a real estate agent for Coldwell Bank in Chester, New Jersey.

It is an honor to induct Jodi Eckert Leonardi into the Hillsborough High School Athletic Hall of Fame.

