

John J. Damiani III

John J. Damiani III is a 2000 graduate of Hillsborough High School.

John was a multi-sport athlete while at HHS, participating in football, winter track and lacrosse, but it is his participation in lacrosse that brings him to the HHS Athletic Hall of Fame.

At Hillsborough High School John earned four Varsity letters in lacrosse and left his mark in many of the boys' lacrosse record books. These included total points scored (116), points in a game (8), career goals (64), career assists (52), assists in a game (4), career ground balls (489), and ground balls for a season (163). His post-season awards included 1st Team All-Conference, 1st Team All-Area, 1st Team All-Pitt Division, and Honorable Mention All-State.

After graduating from HHS, John continued his lacrosse career at Fairleigh Dickinson University. His freshman year the team won the ECAC title. Junior year John was team captain and was named to the 2nd Team All-Middle Atlantic Conference. In his senior year John was again team captain, Team MVP, and he was named to the 1st Team All-Middle Atlantic Conference. John earned a spot in the FDU 100 Point Club with 129 total points, the 17th most points out of the 33 players currently in the 100 Point Club.

The Hall of Fame Committee is proud to induct John J. Damiani III into the class of 2014.
