

Emily Mannix

Emily Mannix had an amazing tennis career at Hillsborough High School and beyond. A four year first singles player at Hillsborough, Emily was also captain of the Hillsborough girls tennis team as a junior and a senior. Along the way, she was an NJ State quarterfinalist in her junior and senior years, helped lead the Raiders to the team championship finals, competed in three rounds of the Girls 18's National Clay Court Tournament in Memphis, Tenn. (2006), played on the Middle States 16's Zonals team (2005) in St. Louis, Mo., and was asked to represent the USTA national section, Middle States. Her USTA ranking reached as high as number 79 in the nation!

Emily continued her tennis career after Hillsborough at the University of Maryland Baltimore County on a full tennis scholarship. While at UMBC, in 2008, Emily earned all-conference honors in singles, was named to Second Team All America East at No. 6 singles, posted a 7-2 mark at that slot and won her match in the league semifinals. She led the Retrievers in doubles victories with (12-6) and formed a solid No. 2 squad with classmate Ana Mungo as they notched a 6-3 record. Emily's success continued at UMBC in 2009 and 2010 as she received 2nd Team all Conference honors in each of those years.
